

Taft is a part-time instructor with the health education department at East Carolina University. She is a board representative on the NC Compliance Commission for Accountability and the NC Charter School Advisory Committee. Taft is a founding board member of the Pitt County Communities in Schools program, has chaired the Ad Hoc Writing Committee and the Governmental Affairs Committee, National Association of State Board of Education. She is an inductee of the East Carolina University School of Education Educator Hall of Fame. Taft received her bachelor of science degree in education cum laude and worked toward her master's degree in education from East Carolina University.

The Board of Education supervises and administers the public school system and the educational funds provided for its support. Members must be jointly confirmed by the General Assembly. The board consists of 13 members who serve eight-year terms with student appointments serving two-year terms. The Governor appoints 11 members.

###